Chaîne Weekend Event with Chef Lee Ceechin in Broken Hill on Wilyakali Country

Thursday 24th October 2024

COCKTAIL PARTY

MUNDI MUNDI PLAINS & THE OLD SALT BUSH
RESTAURANT

Time: 5.00pm Bus TBC - 9.00pm

Dress: Outback/flat shoes

Members with Ribbons/Regalia

Cost: $160 pp

It is with great pleasure that Chaîne des Rôtisseurs Australia and its Bailli Delegue, Mr. Norman Harrison, plus Maitre Rôtisseur Lee Ceechin from The Old Salt Bush Restaurant would like to invite you to the second National Weekend and the first event for our Broken Hill outback odyssey.

Beginning with a Cocktail Party out at the Mundi Mundi Plains to watch the sunset where we get a real sense of the vastness of the outback.

Our bus will take us on a scenic half an hour journey north of Broken Hill to the lookout. Bring along your camera and immerse yourself in the breathtaking vista that stretches endlessly into the horizon, where the sky meets the earth in a mesmerising display of colours, especially at sunset and is the ideal outdoor venue for our cocktail party under the stars. You can enjoy the champagne, G&T's with canapes while watching the sun set across the plains.

We will then retreat to the Old Salt Bush Restaurant to continue the party!

Friday 25th October 2024

DRAG QUEEN SHOW & DINNER
PALACE HOTEL

Time: 6.00pm - 10.30pm

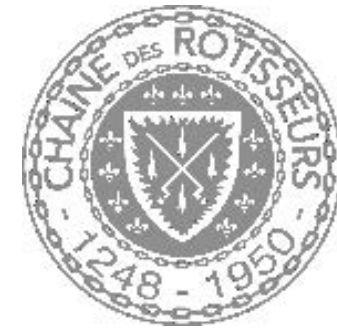

Dress: Cocktail 70's

Members with Ribbons/Regalia

Cost $195pp

After spending a day relaxing and or exploring the outback, our next event is a Drag Show and Dinner in the famous Palace Hotel. We will commence with champagne and canapes on the balcony then move downstairs to the Pavilion room for a 70's themed 3 course menu with wines and the Show! Also take time to explore the buildings murals, painted by an Indigenous artist from Port Augusta by the name of Gordon Way who came into the hotel. Mario asked him to paint a wall in the front bar, which Gordon painted in 8hrs. Over a period of years, Gordon painted all the other murals mostly in a landscape theme.

GALA DINNER
SULPHIDE ST RAILWAY PLATFORM

Time: 6.30pm

Dress: Black Tie with Warm Jacket

Members with Ribbons/Regalia

Cost: $240 pp

Join us for the Gala Dinner on the old Broken Hill Railway Station Platform which is located within the Sulphide Street Railway and Museum.

We will be dining under the station awning where the trains of yesterday once huffed and puffed and transported goods and passengers from 1905 to 1970.

Maitre Rôtisseur, Lee Ceechin and her team will be presenting a bush tucker inspired five course dinner commencing with champagne and canapes under the stars. We are looking forward to members being entertained and enjoying the people, food, wines and venue of our outback odyssey!
